June*

Children’s Activity Desk: T is for Trolley

June 13 to August 30
See pictures of the first horse-drawn street cars and learn about some of the jobs that people had run street cars and maintain the street car line.

Exhibits: Civil War Streetcars and Gilded Age Streetcars

June 13 to August 30
These two special exhibits celebrate the beginning of street car service in the Nation’s Capital, from horse-drawn wagons on rails, to cable cars, to street cars powered by an underground electrical system.

Summer Thursday/Friday Operations

Thursday, June 18 to Friday, August 14
Thursday-Friday operation begins at 10:00 a.m. Go to https://dctrolley.org/ for a listing of the special programs for children each day. This is a great opportunity for field trips, and Moms, Dads or Grandparents with happy rail fans, as well as curious walk-ins.

Groups: see "Field Trips" (under "Visit") on our website for details about scheduling visits.
Also open every Saturday & Sunday (12 noon to 5 p.m.).

* The Museum has been closed for a number of weeks and will remain closed through May 31, if not later. Please check our home page for the actual date when we will be open to the public again. The dates posted here are the earliest possible dates for these events but there could be more delays depending upon health advisories and implementation of new standards for museum operation.
July/August

Event: July 4/Independence Day

July 3 and July 4
The Museum will be open on Friday, July 3 as part of its Summer program (10 a.m. to 2 p.m.) and on Saturday July 4 (12 noon to 5 p.m.) to celebrate the holiday with a special craft for children.

Last Day: Summer Thursdays/Fridays

Friday, August 14
Thursday/Friday operations end at 2:00 p.m., but we're still open Saturdays and Sundays. Thursday/Friday operations will resume on Thursday, October 1.

Event: 83rd Anniversary, PCC Cars Arrive in D.C.

Saturday, August 15
Celebrate the arrival of the Presidents' Conference Committee street cars in the Nation's Capital. See video of the Fourteenth Street car line, the route first served by the cars in 1937. Ride our PCC cars. Visit Street Car Hall and see our local street cars. Open 12 noon to 5 p.m.

Event: 50th Anniversary, DCTS 766 Begins Service at NCTM

Saturday, August 15
Capital Traction Company 27 (DCTS [DC Transit System] 766) went into service at the Museum on August 16, 1970. The car is currently being restored to its earlier appearance as Capital Traction Company 27.
